North

East (Beginning, Inspiration)

“Great Spirit of Light, come to us out of the East with the power of the rising sun.

Let there be light in our words, let there be light on our paths.
Guide us to the path of wisdom.”

South (Growth, Trust)

“Spirit of Life, come to us out of the South with the warmth of the open heart.

Grow in us a garden of peace. May we learn to walk with clarity and grace.”

West (Introspection, Reflection)

“Spirit of Water, come to us out of the West where the sun sets. Help us to let go of our burdens, to forgive ourselves and others, so we may be refreshed and renewed.”

North (Wisdom, Gratitude)

“Spirit of Earth, come to us from the North with the quiet and strength of the mountains.

Grant us the knowledge and patience to endure, and the wisdom to know what’s worth enduring for.”

Below (Mother Earth)

“Spirit of our Mother Earth, who nurtures and sustains all life, help us to honor and protect your abundance and to walk gently upon you,
as we recognize we are all connected.”

Above (Father Sky, The Universe)

“Spirit of the Sky, of the stars, and of the vastness that surrounds us, guide us to see the infinite possibilities, to dream big, and to remember our place within the cosmos.”

Within (The Spirit, The Heart)

“Spirit within, the sacred center. Guide us to connect with our deepest truth, to live with compassion and integrity, and to reflect your light in our everyday actions.”

“May the Spirits of the Seven Directions be with us today and guide us as we walk in balance and harmony. May we live with respect for ourselves, each other, and all living things. Aho.”

Prophecy of White Buffalo Calf Women

The prophecy calls for the white buffalo to change colors four times with each color change representing the four colors of man. Eventually, the prophecy will be fulfilled by all races uniting when the buffalo turns white again. According to the legend, the Earth has been divided into four islands representing the four sacred colors. The people of each island have been entrusted to care for a part of the four spirits:

1. The island of Africa was given to the black brothers, who were to take care of the energy force or our heart.
2. The Island of Europe was given to the white brothers, who were to take care of the air.
3. The Island of Asia was given to the yellow brothers, who were to take care of the water. (Life's Blood.
4. The Island of North America was given to the red men, who were to care for Mother Earth.

The White Buffalo Calf was a sign to begin the joining of the four islands, unifying the four sacred colors of the Earth and eventually bring Global Peace and unite all races.

"American Legend Is Made Flesh"

By: Megan Garvey

"Miracle stands in her mother's considerable shadow, her champagne coat ghost like against the chocolate-colored herd. She is a mat of frame. Yet Miracle is the mythical White Buffalo-symbol of hope, rebirth and unity.

Miracle's likelihood, according to the National Buffalo Assoc., is somewhere in the range of one in 6 billion. The only other documented white buffalo this century died in 1959. His name was Big Medicine. He lived for 36 years.

Miracle lives on the bison farm of Dave Heider in Janesville, Wis.

One Story told by Tony Ironshell of the Rosebud Sioux tribe in South Dakota says that many years ago, three hunters encountered a white buffalo calf. The white buffalo turned herself into a woman and instructed the hunters to return to their village and prepare for her arrival. With that pipe she brought Sioux laws, and many things changed. The pipe from the White Buffalo Calf Woman is still kept in South Dakota."

The White Buffalo Calf Woman, in Lakota mythology, is a sacred woman of supernatural origin who gave the Lakota their "Seven Sacred Rituals".

The traditional story is that, long ago there was a time of famine. The chief of the Lakotas sent out two scouts to hunt for food. As the scouts travelled they saw a figure in the distance. As they approached they saw that it was a beautiful young woman in white clothing.

One of the scouts was filled with desire for the woman. He approached her, telling his companion he would attempt to embrace the woman, and if he found her pleasing, he would claim her as a wife.

His companion warned him that she appeared to be a sacred woman, and to do anything sacrilegious would be folly. The scout ignored his advice. The companion watched as the scout approached and embraced the woman, during which time a white cloud enveloped the pair. After a while, the cloud disappeared and only the mysterious woman remained.

The remaining scout was frightened, and began to draw his bow, but the woman beckoned him forward, telling him that no harm would come to him.

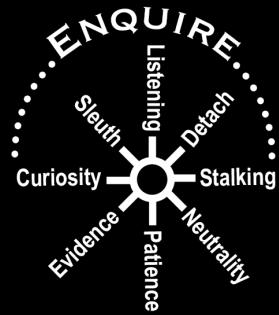

As the woman was fluent in Lakota, the young man decided she was one of his tribe, and came forward. When he arrived, she pointed to a spot on the ground where the other scout's bare bones lay. She explained that the Crazy Buffalo had compelled the man to desire her, and she had annihilated him.

The scout became even more frightened and again menaced her with his bow. At this time, the woman explained that she was Wakan and his weapons could not harm her. She further explained that if he did as she instructed, no harm would befall him and that his tribe would become more prosperous.

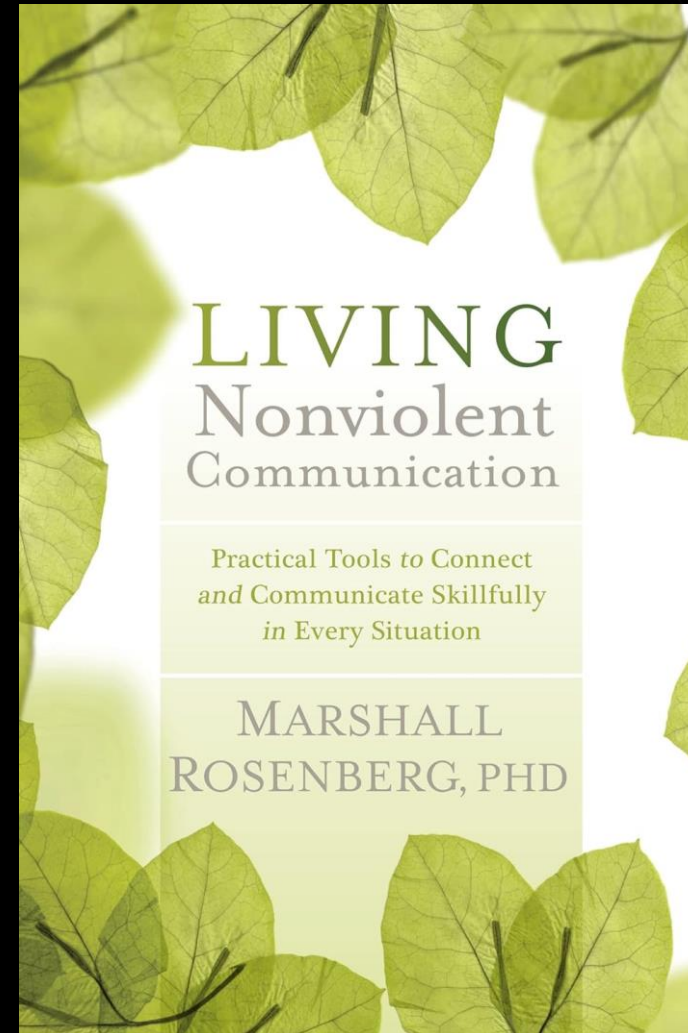

The scout promised to do what she instructed, and was told to return to his encampment, call the Council and prepare a feast for her arrival. The woman's name was Ptesan Wi which translated White Buffalo Calf Woman. She taught the Lakotas many sacred rituals and gave them the chununpa or sacred pipe which is the holiest of all worship symbols. After teaching the people and giving them her gifts, Ptesan Wi left them promising to return.

Marshall Rosenberg
American psychologist

Marshall Bertram Rosenberg was an American psychologist, mediator, author, and teacher. Starting in the early 1960s, he developed nonviolent communication, a process for supporting partnership and resolving conflict within people, relationships, and society

Rosenberg's motivation for developing nonviolent communication was based on his own experiences at the Detroit race riot of 1943, as well as the antisemitism that he experienced in his early life.

- You can have an interest without being attached
- You are looking for what is behind the expression of the energy
- F.E.A.R – False Evidence Appearing Real
- Staying neutral allows for clearer perception and understanding
- See all expression as information
- Remember all information mirrors something in you that you can work on that can be healed
- That there is no separation from an energy expression that is revealing itself to you
- Fundamentally we are all connected and one
- There is no separation.
- An energy trying to scare you does not understand this,
- Has somehow lost the ability to be connected to spirit or their ability to be with
- their own spirit energy

Questions:

Avoid “Why?” and Who?

- Tell me more....
- Show me what this sensation or feeling is trying to convey
- What is it connected to? What is behind it? What is the imbalance?
- What do you need?
- What is needed here?
- What needs to be witnessed
- What needs to be given/shown respect
- Is it something connected to the physical?
- Is it connected to the land here or this house?
- Is it connected to a living human?
- Is there a disembodied spirit needing assistance?
- Are there multiple beings/a collective needing assistance?
- Are there connections through multiple life times or timelines?
- Is there an overseer of this energy?
- Is there a curse hex or spell involved?
- Is there an extra-terrestrial energy involved? Or something beyond this planet?
- Use statements like” I am sensing such and such, is my perception correct?”

Release yourself from the confines of “what is”

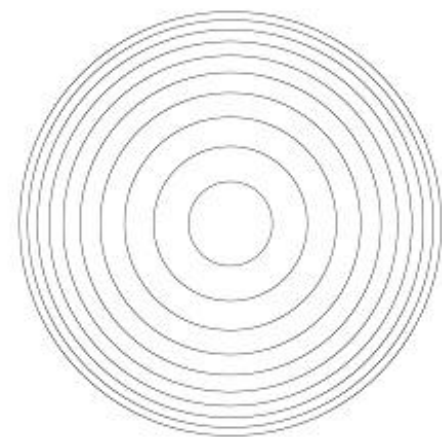

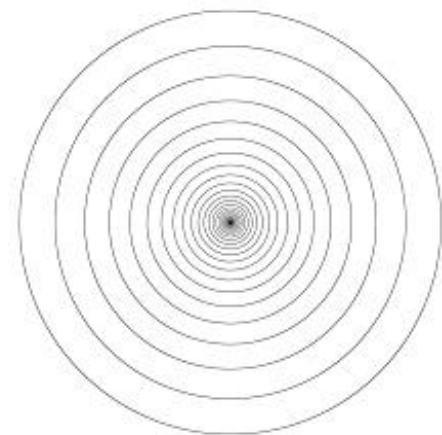

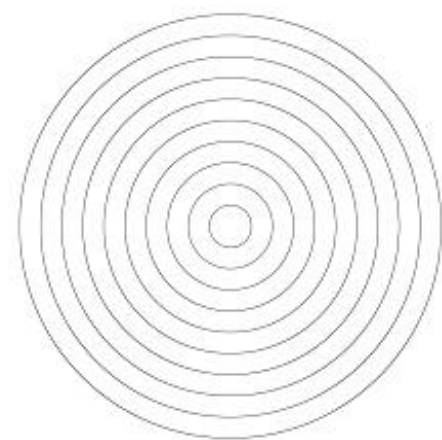

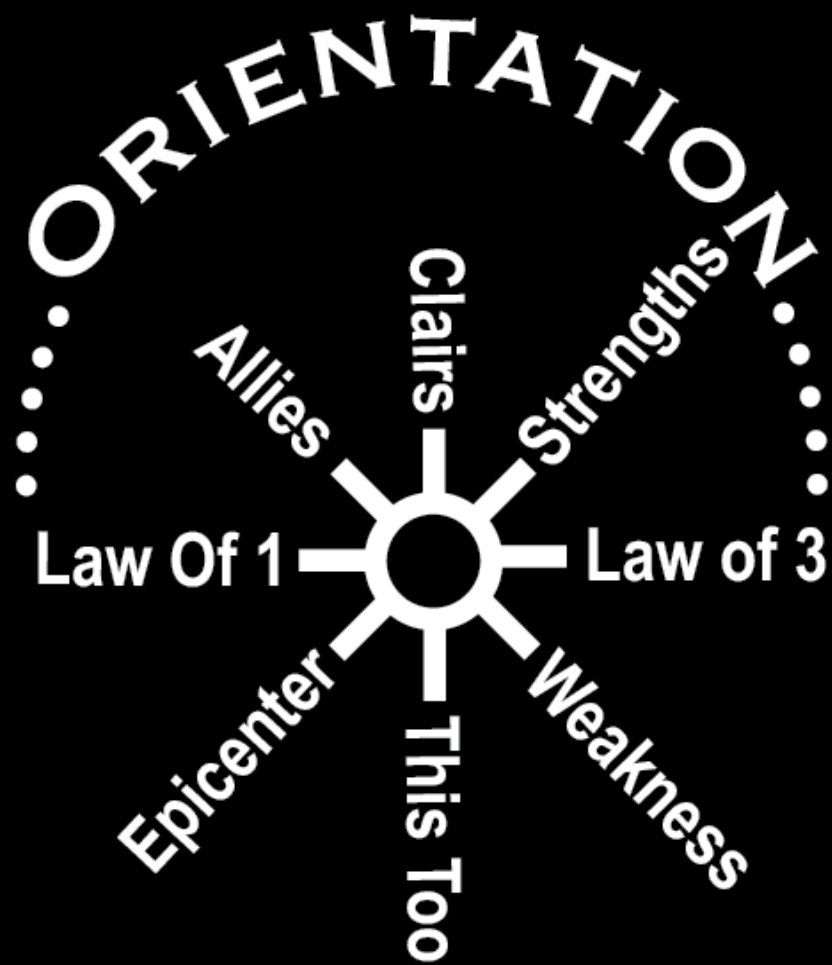

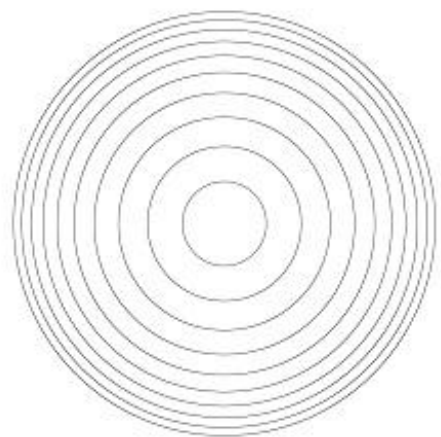

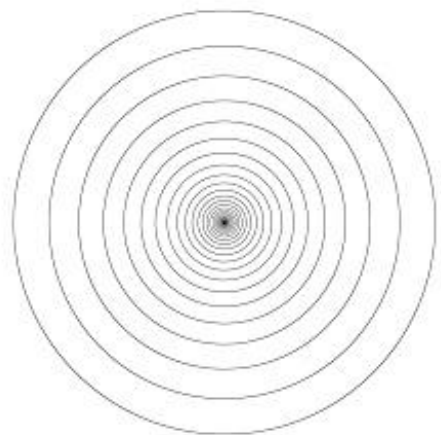

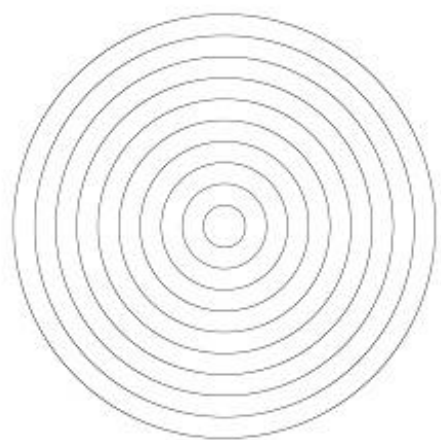

Points to remember:

- An imbalance seeks balance whether it appears to or not, the natural state of being in creation is to be connected to the harmonious frequencies of the divine spirit the omni love presence
- There is always an opposite of what is being presented
- There is always a way to navigate intensity
- You always have the right of free will in any given situation
- Your heart and the love energy that can flow through your heart is extremely powerful and you always can have access to help with that
- Do not underestimate your powers to witness transformation for another being
- Transformation is a WIN WIN WIN, for you, the other being and all other beings involved in the transformation
- Every being has free will, and you must stay clear of manipulation, it is possible to command your space and anything connected to your space, and to administer commands for help from spirit to see that an energy can be sent somewhere else where it can continue its existence and experience somewhere without harming another being

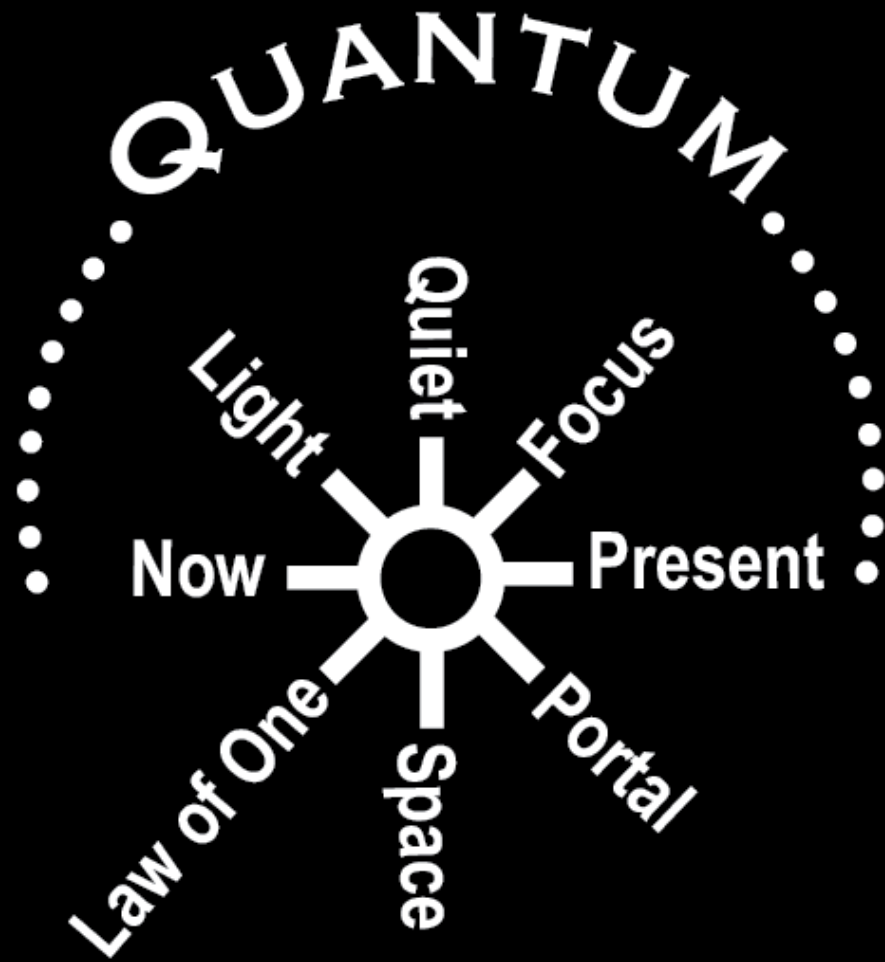

How to command & ask for assistance with an energy that is persistent or manipulating:

- Do the command your space protocol
- Ask for the energy to be guided/taken to another time/space/place continuum to continue its own process of evolution at it's own pace and as it is moved or shifted into this new paradigm of experience that it not fall upon or penetrate through another living being of innocence and light/god consciousness, that it be taken care of totally fully and wholly, and that its energy may not return to any aspect of physical or etheric energy that is connected to the source it is leaving (ie you or another person or a place etc.
- You can say things like “So mote it be” x 3
- “So be it” x 3
- Or “by the power of 3 x 3 as it is spoken so shall it be”
- This way you are working within the Law of 3command protocol
